

Give students the confidence to use their English in the real world.

A Cambridge English: First (FCE) for Schools qualification shows that a student has the language skills they need to communicate in an English-speaking environment. It's also a great way to prepare for higher-level exams such as Cambridge English: Advanced (CAE). Cambridge English: First for Schools is targeted at the same CEFR level as Cambridge English: First (FCE) but with content aimed at school-age learners rather than adults.

Key facts

CEFR level:	B2 What's this?
Scale score:	160–190 What's this?
Test format:	Computer or paper-based
No. of papers:	4
Exam length:	About 3.5 hours

A Cambridge English: First for Schools qualification shows that students can:

- communicate effectively face to face, expressing opinions and presenting arguments
- write clear, detailed English, expressing opinions and explaining the advantages and disadvantages of different points of view
- follow the news
- write letters, reports, stories and lots of other types of text.

Reasons to choose Cambridge English: First for Schools:

- Easily integrated into a school's curriculum.
- Part of a suite of exams that offer step-by-step progression for students.
- Comprehensive support with exam preparation and administration.
- Students can gain a valuable qualification that is accepted worldwide