

This basic-level qualification is a great exam to take if you're new to learning English.

A Cambridge English: Key (KET) qualification is proof of your ability to use English to communicate in simple situations.

The exam tests all four English language skills – reading, writing, listening and speaking.

It should give you the confidence to go on and study for higher-level exams such as Cambridge English: Preliminary (PET) and Cambridge English: First (FCE)

Key facts

|                       |                                 |
|-----------------------|---------------------------------|
| CEFR level:    | A2 What's this? |
| Test format:   | Computer or paper-based         |
| No. of papers: | 3                               |
| Exam length:   | About 2 hours                   |

A Cambridge English: Key certificate shows that you can:

- understand and use basic phrases and expressions
- understand simple written English
- introduce yourself and answer basic questions about yourself
- interact with English speakers at a basic level.

Reasons to choose Cambridge English: Key:

- Gain a valuable qualification that is accepted worldwide.
- Improve your work, study and travel prospects.
- Show that you have the basic language skills you need to communicate in English.